PREDICTS WILSON

LANDSLIDE

Hughes Can't Make American Voters Think White is Black.

Because the country has been kept "at peace in the midst of a Bedlam," there will be a landslide for Wilson in November, in the opinion of A. W. Krueger, of New York, who expressed his views in a letter to the editor of the New York Globe (Rep.)

"We are at the present day," said Mr. Krueger, "a nation of veritable prodigal sons of prosperity, who will not desert us for some 'war-baby' at the end of the war as Herr Hughes would have us believe. The country is at peace in the midst of a Bedlam, on the inside looking out, as it were. But of course even a war is desirable to a peace given us by a Democratic administration. If Mr. Hughes can make the American people believe that white is black then he surely deserves an iron cross and a 'von' tacked on to his name.

"It is true that the politicians could not stem the tide—that even 'a popular Roosevelt' could not stem the tide—of influence of the German-American Alliance turned in favor of its candidate, Hughes.

"The G. O. P. was grasping at a straw, and, believe it was a real, natural straw that it did grasp, which will act as any straw would under the circumstances.

"It is true that Americanism is aroused, an Americanism that will demonstrate to the world there is such a thing as national unity extant in the United States, and which will manifest its blazing glory by a sweeping landslide with Mr. Wilson on top."

About twenty-five masons from Lexington attended the quarterly meeting of the twenty-third Missouri Masonic District Association in Corder Thursday afternoon and evening. All report a pleasant and profitable meeting, and were exceptionally enthusiastic over the quantity and quality of the eats. Some pretty big eaters went from here, and they, too, returned satisfied.

Gordon-Rose.

The Presbyterian Church was the scene of a brilliant wedding Saturday evening when Miss Marie Rose became the bride of Lafayette Gordon, of Kansas City. Rev. A. A. Wallace and H. B. Barks officiated and pronounced the blessing. Misses Eva Miller, Leila Wians, Ruth Robertson and Crete Gus Caldwell were the bridesmaids. Mrs. Morris Gordon, of Jefferson City, the matron of honor, wore white and carried pink roses. The bride entered on the arm of Judge W. W. Botts. Her dress was of ivory satin with lace draperies. She carried a bouquet of valley lilies and roses. Miss Mary Barks played the wedding march. Little Eleanor Case, Rebecca Strode, Katherine and Virginia McClure, of Vandalia, in dainty lingerie dresses with pink bows, acted as flower girls. The ushers were Messrs Pemberton Gordon, of Jefferson City; W. B. Groves and O. H. Westerman, of Lexington; Nate Phillips and Merritt Llewellyn. ## Odessa 5; Lexington 2.

That was enough, but in the fourth they put over another and ditto in the fifth. Lexington scored in the fourth and sixth. Now, if they scored two runs in all, and scored in two innings; how many runs did they score in each inning? One? That's correct, "Slim."
